Lottery Process: If more applications are received than space is available, admission is determined by the use of a state-required lottery of eligible candidates. If required, the lottery will take place on Thursday, April 2, 2020 at 6:00 p.m. Any lottery draw is open to participants and will take place at the Burnside location. Students are selected randomly by grade level to ensure fairness without regard to ethnicity, national origin, disability, gender, income level, English language proficiency, athletic ability or past academic performance. Lottery results are emailed, or mailed if no e-mail address is provided (we recommend e-mail whenever possible), to families within two weeks of the draw.
