

Le Monde French Immersion Public Charter School

Every Student Belongs Policy (Revised 11/3/2021)

Le Monde French Immersion Public Charter School (Le Monde, or the public charter school) does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, gender, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or non-program-related disability, in providing access to student education programs, co-curricular activities, and employment opportunities. All students are entitled to a high quality educational experience, free from discrimination or harassment based on perceived race, color, religion, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, and national origin.

All students are entitled to a high quality educational experience, free from discrimination or harassment based on perceived race, color, religion, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability or national origin.

All employees are entitled to work in an environment that is free from discrimination or harassment based on perceived race, color, religion, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability or national origin.

All visitors are entitled to participate in a school or educational environment that is free from discrimination or harassment based on perceived race, color, religion, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability or national origin.

“Bias incident” means a person’s hostile expression of animus toward another person, relating to the other person’s perceived race, color, religion, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability or national origin, of which criminal investigation or prosecution is impossible or inappropriate. Bias incidents may include derogatory language or behavior.

“Symbol of hate” means nooses^[1], symbols of neo-Nazi ideology or the battle flag of the Confederacy.

The public charter school prohibits the use or display of any symbols of hate on school property² or in an education program³ except where used in teaching curriculum that is aligned with state standards of education for public schools.

In responding to the use of any symbols of hate or bias incidents, the public charter school will use non-disciplinary remedial action whenever appropriate.

The public charter school prohibits retaliation against an individual because that individual has in good faith reported information that the individual believes is evidence of a violation of a state or federal law, rule or regulation.

Nothing in this policy is intended to interfere with the lawful use of public charter school facilities pursuant to a lease or license.

¹ [The display of a noose on public property with the intent to intimidate may be a Class A Misdemeanor under Senate Bill 398 (2021).]

² “School property” means any property under the control of the public charter school.

³ “Education program” includes any program, service, school or activity sponsored by the public charter school.

The public charter school will use the Le Monde Bias Incident Response Procedure to process reports or complaints of bias incidents.
